

Community, Spirituality and Dementia

Saturday 11th November 2017

9.30-4 at St Hilda's Church, Jesmond

Close to West Jesmond Metro station – limited parking on request

We will explore the interface between Community, Spirituality and Dementia, aiming to help people living with dementia to live well and those who support them at home, in church or in any community setting to gain fresh ideas and inspiration.

Keynote speaker – Revd Canon James Woodward – Principal of Sarum College

James Woodward became Principal of Sarum College in 2015. He came to this role after seven years as Canon Steward of St George's Chapel Windsor Castle where he was involved in clergy development work at St Georges House alongside responsibilities for fabric and fundraising. As a Practical Theologian James has focussed particularly on areas of health and healing, old age, the practice of theological reflection and end of life care. In thirty years of ministerial experience James has worked in a range of contexts, including health care chaplaincy and rural ministry. As a theological educator James has taught in the Universities of Birmingham, Warwick, Cardiff, and with The Open University.

Other speakers include Dr Cathy Bailey, Dr Collette Straughair, Ms Jennifer Essex, Mrs Joan Grenfell.. Practical workshops will look at implications for church, for community and for carers.

The cost is £10 waged (£6 unwaged) to include tea / coffee and a sandwich lunch
