Psalm 19 (vv7-end)

The heavens are telling the glory of God

The fear of the Lord is pure, enduring for ever; the ordinances of the Lord are true and righteous altogether. R

More to be desired are they than gold, even much fine gold; sweeter also than honey, and drippings of the honeycomb. R

Moreover by them is your servant warned; in keeping them there is great reward.

But who can detect their errors? Clear me from hidden faults. R

Keep back your servant also from the insolent; do not let them have dominion over me. Then I shall be blameless, and innocent of great transgression. R

Let the words of my mouth and the meditations of my heart be acceptable to you, O Lord, my rock and my redeemer. R

MAUNDY THURSDAY 29th MARCH 2018

The Maundy Thursday Seder will be at 6pm at St Hilda's on Thursday 29th March. It is open to both St George's and St Hilda's congregations and is suitable for families with children of any age. It is an interactive re-telling and involves food, wine, readings, questions and music.

We would share a simple meal together and remember the Old Testament Passover story as part of our remembering the story of Jesus - this will link then to the Maundy Thursday service in St Hilda's at 7.30pm. There will also be a service here at St Georges for those who wish to remember Maundy Thursday here at 7.30pm.

There will be no charge, but for catering purposes, tickets are available from Lesley or Marjorie at St Hilda's and Barbara Peacock at St George's. Please take one if you are able to be there.
