Psalm 92

How great are your works, O Lord.

It is good to give thanks to the Lord, to sing praises to your name, O Most High; to declare your steadfast love in the morning, and your faithfulness by night, to the music of the lute and the harp, to the melody of the lyre. R

For you, O Lord, have made me glad by your work: at the works of your hands I sing for joy. How great are your works, O Lord! Your thoughts are very deep! R

The dullard cannot know, the stupid cannot understand this: though the wicked sprout like grass and all evil doers flourish, they are doomed to destruction for ever, but you, O Lord, are on high for ever. R

For your enemies, O Lord, for your enemies shall perish; all evildoers shall be scattered. R

The righteous flourish like the palm tree, and grow like a cedar in Lebanon. They are planted in the house of the Lord; they flourish in the courts of our God. R

In old age they still produce fruit; they are always green and full of sap, showing that the Lord is upright; he is my rock, and there is no unrighteousness in him. R

St George’s Jesmond

Sunday 17th June 2018 Third Sunday after Trinity

Here are some questions to answer before the 9.30 service begins.

In all low-income countries across the world today, how many girls finish primary school?

20 per cent

40 per cent

60 percent

In the last 20 years, the proportion of the world population living in extreme poverty has...

Almost doubled

Remained more or less the same

Almost halved

How many of the world’s one-year old children today have been vaccinated against some disease?

20 per cent

50 per cent

80 per cent

These questions are taken from “Factfulness” by Hans Rosling. Bill Gates describes it as “One of the most important books I’ve ever read.”

When you have answered the questions, ask yourself what the questions have to do with the parable of the mustard seed from today’s gospel.

GDPR, Consent and the hope to eliminate error has led the Team to reflect on the publication of the names of the sick on our weekly pew sheet. After careful consideration we have decided that we should remove the names of the sick from the pew sheet. However, this does not stop us from praying for those who request our prayers. A list will be kept for the clergy and those leading intercessions. The way to add a name to this list is via the Parish Office; if a name needs to be added, or removed, on a Sunday – then please inform the churchwardens before the service; any names added on a Sunday will be for that day only. If you wish the name to be included in the prayers the following Sunday then please inform the Parish Office. This system will also be used for adding names of the departed to the prayer list.
