PSALM 119 vv 33-40

RESPONSE: GIVE ME UNDERSTANDING AND I SHALL KEEP YOUR LAW

Teach me, O Lord, the way of your statutes, and I shall keep it to the end. Give me understanding and I shall keep your law; I shall keep it with all my heart. R

Make me go in the path of your commandments, for that is my desire. Incline my heart to your decrees and not to unjust gain. R

Turn my eyes from watching what is worthless; give me life in your ways. Fulfil your promise to your servant, which you make to those who fear you. R

Turn away the reproach which I dread, because your judgements are good. Behold, I long for your commandments; in your righteousness preserve my life. R

In this time of uncertainty and distress.

Lockdown Reflections: We're offering an opportunity to reflect on and to participate in a conversation about our collective and individual experiences of Lockdown, and hopes for the future, over the coming weeks. This will be part of a wider conversation being explored by the House of Lords, but gives us the chance to unpack together some of what we have lived through in the last few months. Dates and times will be offered over the coming weeks, and if you'd like more information, please speak to the Clergy Team. We will meet on the Green (weather permitting) for an hour on the following days: Thurs 10th September, 7.30pm

If you'd like to contribute but are unable to come along to the conversations on the Green, do feel free to respond directly to the House of Lords Covid-19 Committee here: <https://committees.parliament.uk/call-for-evidence/192/life-beyond-covid/>

The People's Kitchen: During September, and as part of our Harvest Festival celebrations, please help us to support the work of The People's Kitchen. The Kitchen is providing 130-165 hot meals every day to Newcastle's homeless and needy, as well as friendship and practical support. It is an important part of the overall support network in our city. Please see this month's Lance for more details. Food stocks have run low over the coronavirus period and winter is coming. The most urgent needs are for tinned good: meat of all kinds, tuna, vegetables, soup, custard, rice pudding and fruit. Pasta and baked beans are not needed at this time. Monetary donations, by cash, cheque or bank transfer are also most welcome. See <https://www.peopleskitchen.co.uk/donate/>

PCC vacancies: There are upcoming vacancies for the positions of churchwarden, PCC treasurer and for both PCC members and Deanery Synod members which are all for three year terms. The names of PCC members must be included on the St, George's electoral roll. If you would be interested in any of these roles, please contact the vicar or wardens for more information.

Pilgrimage: On Tuesday, Stephanie will begin walking the Camino Frances to Santiago de Compostela, a journey of about 484 miles. Please do hold Stephanie in your prayers as she makes her pilgrimage and if you'd like to follow her progress you can do so here: www.facebook.com/revdskeates

The Parish Office will be closed this week, reopening on 14th September.

Bells will be left up until 20th September to allow for ringing at weddings. Please don't enter the tower during this period.
