	Service Details	Hymns
Setting:	Peacock	357
First reading:	Isaiah 53: 4-end (p. 694)	324i 799ii
Psalm:	91: 9-end	612

(The choir will sing the refrain first. You're invited to join in where indicated by R)

Response: Keep me as the apple of your eye

Because you have made the Lord your refuge and the Most High your stronghold, there shall no evil happen to you, neither shall any plague come near your tent. R

For he shall give his angels charge over you, to keep you in all your ways. They shall bear you in their hands, lest you dash your foot against a stone. R

You shall tread upon the lion and adder; the young lion and the serpent you shall trample underfoot. Because they have set their love upon me, therefore will I deliver them; I will lift them up, because they know my name. R

They will call upon me and I will answer them; I am with them in trouble, I will deliver them and bring them to honour. With long life will I satisfy them and show them my salvation. R

Second reading: Hebrews 5: 1-10 (NT p. 217)

Gospel Acclamation: Speak, Lord, for your servant is listening. You have the words of eternal life.

Gospel: Mark 10: 35-45 (NT p. 45)

All who normally receive communion in any church are welcome to receive today. If you would prefer to receive a blessing, please bow your head and keep your hands at your sides when you come, to signal your intention. Gluten free wafers are available; please come to the central altar & ask if you require one.

When receiving the wine, please do not dip your wafer into the wine (intinction). All advice suggests that drinking from the cup is a more hygienic method of sharing.

Communion Motet: Holy is the true light - Harris

Voluntary: March (Richard III) - Walton

After the 9.30am service, you are warmly invited to join us for refreshments, served in the hall by Ian & Jackie Spencer, Margaret Vane, and Arthur Vane.

From Debbie: It has been only a short time since my installation as Vicar and I have been overwhelmed by the friendship I have been offered and the support I have been given as I settle into this area and role. Jesmond is a beautiful place with a truly friendly and welcoming vibe and as a family we have enjoyed walking around and seeing the sights, enjoying the coffee shops and meeting the people who make this place so special.

My installation was a joyous moment shared by over 200 people onsite at St George's and almost the same number joining in worship online, a moment I will treasure and a wonderful start to a new ministry. It was lovely to be welcomed by Ecumenical colleagues and people from many different areas of life all of whom are passionate about Jesmond.

And so I wanted to take this opportunity to say Thank you to each and every one of you for all that you did to make my installation service and buffet such a memorable occasion and for the time you have taken to make us welcome here. I very much look forward to working with you all as we walk into God's future together.

The September-October Lance can now be collected from the back of church. If you are not subscribed and would like to be, please contact the parish office.

Christmas Market, Saturday 7th December, 12-3pm: If you can help, or have any brilliant new ideas, please come along to a brief meeting after the 9.30 service next Sunday (27th). Everyone please start baking & freezing, crafting, potting on and clearing out to contribute to the stalls. Thank you. Hazel Jones-Lee, Mike and Linsley de la Hunt.

All Souls: a requiem mass will be held on Sunday 3rd November at 6pm.

Friends Christmas cards: just £4 per pack of 10 cards with envelopes. They can be bought from Barbara P or from Jonathan in the Parish Office.

Organ Meditations: a series of recitals at Jesmond URC, Fridays at 1pm until 15th Nov. Free but donations to the Organ Fund are welcome. Tea & coffee available.

The Parish Office is closed until Monday 28th October.
