

FAMILY-FRIENDLY FESTIVE FUN at St George's Jesmond this Christmas

Thursday 5th December: The Big Jesmond Light-up, 5.30pm / 6.30pm

Gather at Acorn Road for the first big light-up at 5.30pm, and at the church for the second at 6.30pm. Nativity and Music from the Signing Choir of the Percy Hedley Foundation and Newcastle Concert Band. Free hot drinks and mince pies.

Saturday 7th December: St George's Christmas Market, 12-3pm

Children's room with Mrs Christmas, face painting (2-3pm), cakes, plants and gifts, Christmas cards, seasonal refreshments, and more.

St Hilda's Christmas Tree Festival, 10-4pm

Any trees to be entered into this festival to be submitted by Friday 6th - £10 per entry with prizes awarded for the best trees. Carol singing at 5pm.

Saturday 14th December: The Living Nativity, 2pm

Join Mary, Joseph, and Honey their donkey, for a seasonal stroll around Jesmond via Acorn Road, beginning on the church green - looking out for shepherds, wise men, and angels along the way. Hot drinks & refreshments to finish. Wrap up warm and come in festive costume if you want.

Tuesday 24th December: Nativity, 3-4pm

Come as your favourite nativity character and join in this interactive service telling the story of Christmas.

Tuesday 24th December: Carol Service, 6pm

Come closer to see the blessing of the crib and sing familiar carols. It's very popular so come in plenty of time. (Dressing up encouraged)

Wednesday 25th December: Christmas Morning Service, 9.30-10.45am

Start your Christmas Day in the time-honoured way, by coming to church! A joyful celebration of the birth of Jesus.
